Science: Students explored oxygen and the space that it consumes when completing science experiments with candles and food dye.

Rock and Water: This week students participated in activities to centre themselves, and to both give and receive compliments.

Raffle: Students have been given raffle tickets to sell to help raise funds for the School camp. All money that students raise, they keep!